THREE WAYS TO GIVE

Direct Gift

Direct Giving ensures that your donation goes directly to the Scott-Ritchey Research Center. Even the smallest donations can make a difference. Donations can be made in honor/memory of pets or individuals. In addition, there are multiple naming opportunities, ranging from laboratory equipment, laboratories, endowed professorships, and buildings.

Scott Donations Fund

Practitioners can make gifts in memory of lost pets or give a donation card to the client via the Scott Donations Fund. Donation cards are used to suggest the client make a memorial gift to the Scott-Ritchey Research Center.

Swaim Fund For Excellence

This endowment is established by gifts from friends of Steven F. Swaim, D.V.M., M.S., for the purpose of providing funds for excellence in the College of Veterinary Medicine. It is an endowment which recognizes Dr. Swaim's contributions to the veterinary profession, companion animal practice, research and teaching. It is our hope that this endowment will provide for the continuation of Dr. Swaim's work by supporting a residency position with a focus on wound management.

Please make your tax-deductible donation payable to the Scott-Ritchey Research Center and mail to:
