

Call for Nominations Young Achiever's Award Class of 2007

The Awards Committee of the Alumni Advisory Council needs your nominations for the Young Achiever's Award for the Class of 2007. The Young Achievers award is given to one or more members in the Class of 2007 for their accomplishments in veterinary medicine, their outstanding community service and for their advancement for animal health. The Awards Committee of the Alumni Advisory Council will review the nominations and select the recipients. Young Achiever's will be honored on March 31, 2017, at the Annual Conference opening session.

NOMINEES

There are three areas of eligibility for the awards:

- (1) Academia
- (2) Private Practice
- (3) Other, Research and Public Policy (including service in government, industry, and the military)

The candidate must be a DVM graduate of the of Auburn's College of Veterinary Medicine. The nominee should be known for his or her accomplishments in veterinary medicine and/or have made an outstanding contribution to his or her community and the advancement of animal and human health in the 10 years since graduation.

Documentation is an important aspect of the nomination process. All documentation must be received by Wednesday, March 1, 2017 to be accepted. Information required:

- Nominee and class year
- Current address and Daytime Phone
- Educational and Professional Training
- Current and Previous Professional Activity
- Professional and Educational Organizations
- Participation in Civic and Community or Other Organizations
- Honorary Societies, Honors, and/or Special Awards
- Why you think this nominee is deserving of a Young Achiever Award; and
- Name, Address and Phone number of the person submitting the nomination

To nominate an alumnus for this award, submit the following information to:

Awards Committee Chair
Alumni Advisory Council
104 Greene Hall
Auburn, AL 36849-5517