

Chop's Chops
Presented by Jennifer Pannell LVT

"Chop"

1yr old MI Belgian Malinois

Presented to AUCVM on 12/1/2017 Emergency and Critical Care for gunshot wounds to right side of face and right pelvic limb

Outline

- A) Presentation/Triage
 - a) Initial assessment
 - i) ABC's of Emergency Medicine
 - ii) Identify polytrauma to face and pelvic limb
 - b) Initial stabilization
 - i) Apply pressure & compressive bandages over wounds
 - ii) Start IV fluids
 - iii) Administer medications for pain and broad spectrum antibiotic
- B) Initial blood work
- C) General anesthesia for debridement of wounds, place temporary bandages, imaging, and placement of E-tube
 - a) Radiographs
 - b) CT of the head
 - c) Place E-tube & take placement radiograph
 - d) Debridement of wound on Right pelvic limb
- D) Wound management
 - a) Facial wound management
 - b) Pelvic wound management
- E) Outcome
- F) Questions?